CONIFEROUS EVERGREENS

We are again offering a few varieties of Conifers for lining out. Plants described as three year have stood two years in wide nursery rows; two year plants have had one season in nursery rows; one year are in beds. Two and three year plants have been twice transplanted. All are well rooted. Will be carefully puddled as dug. Sizes given are average as we wish to thin rows and there may be more variation than the grades indicate, but more plants will be found above grade than below.

We wish to emphasize the fact that the two and three year Conifers offered have been twice transplanted, and are now growing in nursery rows with plenty of room for development this season. Our only reason for offering them for sale is the fact that they are too close to carry for next year without thinning out. There will be no loss in these in transplanting. Prices quoted are low for quality of the stock.
